

dexter

Dear dexter,

Congratulations! You've been able to lead this group of mouz to Counter-Strike's biggest stage. Might I add this is a huge undertaking, being a dad and all, but I know that it was no sweat for you and the boys. Your flexibility between positions and weapons means that no matter the situation the team finds itself in, the enemies still shake before you, trembling for your mercy. Being the newest member of a legendary esports organization may have been daunting at first, but you have taken this team and have been able to mastermind some of the best Counter-Strike in recent months.

This isn't your first Major, you know how these things go. You have the entire community behind you, knowing you'll put your best foot forward for the team. Having the entire 7 maps at your disposal already puts you at a tactical advantage over the likes of most of the competition. Plus, having a fragging IGL this time around will be far better for our chances.

Good luck sexter! We wish you and the team great success at the Major!
